An Easter message from the Archbishop of Sydney to Church leaders and their churches

Dear brothers and sisters

For what I received, I passed onto you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures and that he appeared to Peter, and then to the Twelve. 1 Corinthians 15:3-5

I am praying for your ministry as we prepare to celebrate the Cross of Jesus and the empty tomb. I am struck again by the apostle Paul's use of the words 'first importance'.

They are words that convey the primacy in Jesus' own life and teaching of his mission to die and rise again. It was after all, the 'work' his Father had given him to do, and the plan of God as unfolded 'according to the Scriptures'. Three times Jesus had told his disciples: 'the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests and the teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and after three days rise again.'

The stunning achievement of Jesus' death on the cross - 'a ransom for many' for 'the forgiveness of sins' - and his resurrection triumph over death and sin and the devil had become matters of 'first importance' to the apostle also, following his encounter with the risen Jesus. 'I am the least of the apostles and do not even deserve to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am...his grace to me was not without effect' (v9-10).

And of course, the cross and the empty tomb are of first importance to every person who has ever lived before or since: 'For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man. For as in Adam all die, so in Christ will all be made alive.' (v21- 22)

There are few privileges to compare with being entrusted with 'things of first importance'. As you lead God's people and serve your communities by proclaiming the forgiveness of sins through faith in Jesus, and the promise of new, abundant and eternal life in the Spirit of the risen Jesus, may you too hear with fresh wonder and thanks the announcement of the angel: He is not here. He is risen!

To you and your families, a blessed and joyful Easter. Hallelujah! What a Saviour!
In Christ

Kenneth Roffel

Thought for the week

"you were once separated from Christ..." Ephesians 2:12

Matthew 21:1-17

As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, <sup>2</sup> saying to them, "Go to the village ahead of you, and at once you will find a donkey tied there, with her colt by her. Untie them and bring them to me. <sup>3</sup> If anyone says anything to you, say that the Lord needs them, and he will send them right away."

<sup>5</sup> "Say to Daughter Zion, 'See, your king comes to you, gentle and riding on a donkey, and on a colt, the foal of a donkey.'"

<sup>6</sup> The disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them. <sup>7</sup> They brought the donkey and the colt and placed their cloaks on them for Jesus to sit on. <sup>8</sup> A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. <sup>9</sup> The crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed shouted, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" "Hosanna in the highest heaven!" <sup>10</sup> When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, "Who is this?"

<sup>12</sup> Jesus entered the temple courts and drove out all who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves. <sup>13</sup> "It is written," he said to them, "My house will be called a house of prayer,<sup>[e]</sup> but you are making it 'a den of robbers.'<sup>[f]</sup>"

<sup>14</sup> The blind and the lame came to him at the temple, and he healed them. <sup>15</sup> But when the chief priests and the teachers of the law saw the wonderful things he did and the children shouting in the temple courts, "Hosanna to the Son of David," they were indignant. <sup>16</sup> "Do you hear what these children are saying?" they asked him. "Yes," replied Jesus, "have you never read, "'From the lips of children and infants you, Lord, have called forth your praise'?" <sup>17</sup> And he left them and went out of the city to Bethany, where he spent the night.

Next Church Roster

Over the next few weeks we will be preparing new quarterly rosters (May to July) for those who assist at our weekly services through special ministries such as: Welcoming, Bible Reading, Leading Prayers.

(Preparation of the roster is a little earlier than usual due to the absence of our volunteer Office staff in the latter part of April)

For continuity, we will use the same list of helpers from the current roster, unless you indicate otherwise and, of course, it would be great to add some extra helpers for these much appreciated ministries. Aiden and Dave would be pleased to chat with you about these ministry opportunities and advise you on how you may best serve.

Please let the Church Office know by 14 April, if you would like your name to be added or deleted from the next roster, or if there are dates in the May to July period when you know you will not be available.

The new Roster will be distributed on Sunday 21 April.
