Preacher: Aiden Sibrava
Title: Do you love me?

Readings: (1) John 21:1-14 (2) 15-25

St Martin's, Ulladulla @ 9 am & 4 pm
St Peter's and St Paul's, Milton @ 11 am

John 21:15-25

<sup>15</sup> When they had finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?”

“Yes, Lord,” he said, “you know that I love you.” Jesus said, “Feed my lambs.”

<sup>16</sup> Again Jesus said, “Simon son of John, do you love me?”

He answered, “Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.”

Jesus said, “Take care of my sheep.”

<sup>17</sup> The third time he said to him, “Simon son of John, do you love me?”

Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, “Do you love me?” He said,

“Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you.”

Jesus said, “Feed my sheep. <sup>18</sup> Very truly I tell you, when you were younger you dressed yourself and went where you wanted; but when you are old you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go.” <sup>19</sup> Jesus said this to indicate the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. Then he said to him, “Follow me!”

<sup>20</sup> Peter turned and saw that the disciple whom Jesus loved was following them. (This was the one who had leaned back against Jesus at the supper and had said, “Lord, who is going to betray you?”) <sup>21</sup> When Peter saw him, he asked, “Lord, what about him?”

<sup>22</sup> Jesus answered, “If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you? You must follow me.” <sup>23</sup> Because of this, the rumour spread among the believers that this disciple would not die. But Jesus did not say that he would not die; he only said, “If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you?”

<sup>24</sup> This is the disciple who testifies to these things and who wrote them down. We know that his testimony is true.

<sup>25</sup> Jesus did many other things as well. If every one of them were written down, I suppose that even the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written.

SPECIAL APPOINTMENT FOR MILTON

Parish Council has appointed Allan Pride as official Milton Liaison Manager with the role of ensuring that Milton site issues are well communicated to wardens and staff for their attention. Talk to him!

COMING EVENTS

Anzac Day: Ss Peter & Paul will be open 9 —12 non. Parishioners wanting to be friendly to visitors could come and spend some quiet moments in the church.

PRAYER SPOT

Jesus said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore to send out workers into his harvest field. (Matthew 9:27,28)

Pray for:

- God to give special protection and grace to Christians in Lebanon, Israel, Iran and other war zones.
  - the ceasefire to be extended and for rational talks that consider not just economic but human costs
  - revival in Christian faith in our local community and in Australia.
  - outreach to the needy through Safe Waters and the community breakfasts.
  - the church leadership of Aiden, Steve, the new wardens and parish council.
  - those suffering chronic illnesses or family stress, especially Peter Snape, Sheila Gallant, Lorna Neill and Ross Maltman, all dealing with ongoing health issues.
  - thanks for positive progress after John Davidson's surgery for a fractured tibia and pray for ongoing healing.
  - the hospital chaplains, especially Lauren taking an extra load.
  - Miriam Bradshaw in Valencia, Spain, and the Vegas with YWAM.
  - the ministry of Nathan and Lauren Ross and their team at the Pines.
  - a growing sense of shared community as we work and pray together, and that this will be facilitated by the updated church directory.

ROAD SAFETY

A priest and a rabbi are in a car crash and it's a bad one. Both of their cars are demolished but amazingly neither one of them is hurt.

TRAFFIC OFFENCES

After they crawl out of their cars, the rabbi says, "So you're a priest. That's interesting; I'm a rabbi. Wow, just look at our cars! There's nothing left, but we're unhurt. This must be a sign from God that we should meet and be friends and live together in peace."

The priest replies, "Oh, yes, I agree. It's a miracle that we survived and are here together."

"And here's another miracle," says the rabbi. "My car is destroyed but this bottle of wine didn't break. Surely God wants us to drink the wine and celebrate our good fortune," he says, handing the bottle to the priest.

The priest nods in agreement, opens the wine, drinks half of it, and hands it back to the rabbi. The rabbi takes it and puts the cap back on.

"Aren't you going to have any?" asks the priest.

"Not right now," says the rabbi. "I think I'll wait until after the police make their report."

THE GIVING TREE

Please choose an envelope and give a little bit extra to wipe out our parish's deficit. Then we can enhance and expand our ministries to the aged and to young people, facilitate generosity and comfort to the disadvantaged, provide reliable targeted maintenance for our historic Milton site and improved attractive modern facilities for people of all ages and stages of life in our hall and church at Ulladulla. God loves a cheerful giver! (2Cor 9:7)
