

Are you new or visiting?

We are glad you are here today. If you would like to know more about our church and its programs or you want to give feed-back from your visit, please speak with a church leader or fill in the communications card.

Your Wavelength

Please share interesting articles, jokes and notices. Send copy to the church office or directly to Ruth by 9.00 am the Wednesday before publication. Wavelength is reduced in size temporarily until the broken main copier is replaced.

Scam Alert

Do not become complacent! Never forget that someone may try and trick you electronically into giving money, pretending to be from this church, perhaps using plausible explanations, real people's names and apparently genuine email addresses.

Prayer Spot

James (4:3,4) writes: When you ask, you do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, that you may spend what you get on your pleasures.

Pray and thank God about:

- the people of Nepal struck by recent devastating floods and for aid agencies such as TEAR Fund and Anglican Aid trying to help.
- the social welfare work of Anglicare & other agencies, & housing stress issues.
- Aiden & Jess and all of us to continue trusting in Jesus and serving each other.
- proper and fair resolution of current issues for this parish.
- Peter Lunn's mother, Michelle, who brought him through tough times, now in care in Melbourne with Parkinsons and dementia, while Peter feels so sad.
- peace, energy and encouragement for S-J who is tired.
- healing for Sienna Stewart, Noah Maling, Leigh Taylor (surgery) Michelle Gilbert (chronic conditions and flu), David Menzie
- local hospital chaplains and those caring for the disadvantaged.

Fathers' day

We thank God for good fathers, we mourn those we have lost and we are saddened for those who never quite came up to scratch. The Lord's Prayer reminds us that the greatest Father of all is our Heavenly Father, who made us, loves us, provides for us and protects us, far beyond what any fallible human father could do. Thank Him!

Here are some Dad jokes to lighten your heart and remind you of the good old days. You wouldn't cheat, would you, by checking the back page!

1. Who was the smallest person in the Bible?
2. Why couldn't Jonah trust the ocean?
3. What kind of person was Boaz before he got married?
4. D'ya need an ark?

Roster Update – October to December

Please ring Wendy or email the office about continuing or joining rosters and any dates you know you are unavailable, particularly around Christmas. New newcomers, Bible readers, pray-ers, creche helpers, audio-visual operators are always welcome.

Archdeacon Availability

If you have concerns about ministry in our parish, Archdeacon Anthony Douglas has affirmed his availability to receive comments and explain processes. Contact details are: E: adouglas@sydney.anglican.asn.au; M: 0414 394 886; 74 Church St, Wollongong.

Bookshop News and Needs

Volunteers needed for the bookshop on Monday afternoons and Friday mornings. Please speak to the Kermas. The bookshop has introduced craft sessions. If you have any skills you would like to share, we would love to hear from you!

Communications Cards – now in the pews

These were approved by Aiden and the Communications Committee several months ago but it's taken time to be ready to launch them. One side gives the option of immediate comment or questions, and the other is for contact updates or prayer requests. Please use these to keep our community together and well cared for.

The National Church Life Survey is coming

Our parish will be participating in the NCLS on 20th September. This is like a church census, with the aims of recording how churches and their people serve their communities and of providing a snapshot of our own parish to help leaders with planning and areas for focus. Completing it will take about 15 minutes at the end of each service. Please come and please do it well for everyone's mutual encouragement.

Christmas cards will be available soon. Cost from $1. All money raised goes as a donation to the Giving Tree.

Overcome Evil with Good

During the Korean war, a South Korean civilian was arrested by the communists and ordered to be shot. When the young communist leader learned that the prisoner in his charge was the head of an orphanage caring for young children, he decided to spare him. Instead, he ordered the execution of the man's son.

The 19 year old son was shot in the presence of his father. After the war, the young communist leader was captured by the United Nations forces & condemned to death. But before the sentence could be carried out, the Christian whose son had been killed, pleaded for the life of the killer. He argued that the communist had been young when he ordered the execution, and that he really didn't know what he was doing. 'Give him to me,' the man requested, 'and I will train him.' Unusual though it was, the UN forces granted his request; the father took the murderer of his son into his own home and took care of him. The Bible says, Love never fails. (1 Cor. 13.8) By being exposed to the love of God, that former communist leader became a Christian and eventually went on to become a pastor of a church.

Have you been hurt, betrayed or treated unfairly? Instead of retaliating in anger, handle it scripturally: Never pay back evil with more evil...Never take revenge. Leave that to the righteous anger of God....Don't let evil conquer you, but conquer evil by doing good. (Rom. 12:17-21)
