

Are you new or visiting?

We are glad you are here today. If you would like to know more about our church and its programs or you want to give feed-back from your visit, please fill in the communication card in the pews or speak with a church leader.

Wavelength Deadline: Wednesday 9:00 am for the following Sunday.

Regular Events

Open Door (ladies social & craft group) each Tuesday 9.30 – 12.00 at Ulladulla. All are welcome. Contact Lorna UCEF Prayer meeting every Wednesday, 1.30 – 2.30 pm at Ulladulla in school terms. Contact Helen Wilford.

Prayer Meeting every Thursday, 3pm at Ulladulla. Contact Viv.

Friday Life for youth: Yr 5, 6 and high school. Every Friday, 3.30 – 5:30 pm at Ulladulla in school terms. Contact Lauren Ross Life Groups, weekly at different times. See noticeboards or church leaders.

Cake Sunday last Sunday of the month 10 am Milton Anglican Church

Services at Residential Homes Every third Tuesday, 10:30 am at Sarah Claydon; every 4th Sunday at 10 am at Arcare. Contact Frank Gee to offer support.

Ladies Lunch, first Friday of each month, midday. Contact Meg Hoogesteger.

Community Breakfast: Last Friday of each month.

Contact Geoff Brown

Keys Contacts

Rector: Aiden Sibrava: on leave

Locum Rector:

Trevor Edwards:

Wardens:

Rowena Barton:

Geoff Brown:

Bart Vanden Hengel:

Safe Ministry: Peter Kerma.

Website: ulladulla-anglican.org

Office: Ulladulla site (Cnr: Princes Hwy & Green St)

Phone (02) 4454 2030; Email: office@ulladulla-milton-anglican.org

Bookshop: Open Mon – Fri 10 am – 4 pm

(02) 4454 2030; Email: bookstore@ulladulla-milton-anglican.org

Bank Details:

St Martins, Ulladulla BSB 032701 AC 245648

Ss Peter & Paul, Milton BSB 633000 AC 157807868

20th September 2026

Preacher: Trevor Edwards

Title: Building A Caring Community —
Love One Another

Readings: (1) John 13:31–35 (2) Romans 12:9–17

*Thank you for joining with God's people here.
We are always glad to have visitors and inquirers.*

HERE FOR JESUS, HERE FOR THE COAST

SOUTH COAST ANGLICAN CHURCH

St Martin's, Ulladulla @ 9 am & 4 pm
St Peter's and St Paul's, Milton @ 11 am

John 13:34–35 (p.1080)

³⁴ “A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. ³⁵ By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.”

Romans 12:9–17 (p.1137)

Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. ¹⁰ Be devoted to one another in love. Honor one another above yourselves. ¹¹ Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervour, serving the Lord. ¹² Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. ¹³ Share with the Lord’s people who are in need. Practice hospitality.

¹⁴ Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. ¹⁵ Rejoice with those who rejoice; mourn with those who mourn. ¹⁶ Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with people of low position. Do not be conceited. ¹⁷ Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Be careful to do what is right in the eyes of everyone.

Communication Cards

Our new communication cards have got off to a good start. Please use them to give suggestions, update your details and note prayer points either for public prayer or confidential prayer by ministry staff. Not all suggestions can be implemented immediately and some may not work but all will be considered.

Christmas is Coming!

Please contact Wendy at the office if you can help with roster duties at 5:00pm or 11:00pm Christmas Eve, or 8:00am (Milton) or 9:30 am Christmas Day. We still need more musicians to make 5:00 pm viable.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD
A simple gift. A big impact. ♥

Boxes are available at the back of the church. Or we can fill one for you.

Our Friday Life Youth will be packing shoeboxes in October, so donations are warmly welcome.

Drop boxes or donations at church or Burrill Pines office by 24 October.

Do you have a spare table?

God has answered our prayers and now Christina Heromate has a 2-bedroom rental. Friends at our 4:00 pm service have been finding furniture but she still needs a table and chairs. If you can help please contact her on 0438 316 785 or ring Rhonda Jepson.

Next weekend – have some fun with the younger generation

Ulladulla site is hosting the MTS Mission Minded South Coast Conference again next weekend. Wendy Kerma needs help next Saturday, 26th, in looking after 8 – 10 children at the church. Some extra support for Kids’ Church on Sunday would also be useful. Please contact her to tell her when you might help.

Christmas Cards
available today at the back of Ulladulla church. Proceeds go to the Giving Tree.

BCA Boxes due now! 4th October is the deadline. Speak to Gwen Lea to join the team using small change to support our fellow Christians in remote areas.

A Miracle in the Midst of the Everyday

Taking Liz for a Suzuki piano lesson when she was 4, was not easy, as she didn't like it or want to practise. James was almost 2 and fidgety. Finally the moment came when they and I were released from the agony of the lesson.

Liz was thirsty and I needed to go shopping, but I promised her we would have a drink after I'd been to Twelvetreets bookshop. I had bought books as presents and was laden down with my booty, but it was time to cross the road to get the promised drink. As it was a Friday just before Christmas, Sandy Bay Road was busy. There was a small pedestrian crossing and we managed to get halfway across, but there were buses, trucks and cars all zooming past. I thought I should hold James' hand rather than Liz's because he was more likely to step off the kerb than Liz.

I heard a bang and wondered if a car had hit a pedestrian, but when I looked down, there was no Liz to be seen. She had been hit by a truck and had sailed through the air a good hundred yards from us. I screamed hysterically, thinking that Liz was dead. The traffic stopped around us, and some kind person took charge of James while I was a hopeless case!

But Liz was still alive. Thank you, God! She was taken by ambulance to the Royal Hobart Hospital, but for James, travelling in an ambulance with the siren blaring was a great excitement. When we arrived we were taken immediately to casualty where Liz was checked for broken bones and internal damage. It took 4 hours. Although Liz complained that she was still thirsty, she couldn't have a drink while she was still being x-rayed. Finally, we could go home and Liz was able to quench her thirst after not having had a drink since breakfast.

I felt that the truck driver must have been driving too close to her. But Liz said she had stepped off the kerb. Nothing could have been done. I found out later that the driver was devastated to hit a little girl and had rung up several times to check on her.

When we arrived home, Liz pleaded could she now have the kitten she'd been begging for. She had me over a barrel, because she knew I was so grateful she was unharmed, except for some bruises on her left side. I reluctantly said yes. It was the ugliest kitten I had ever set eyes on — a long haired tabby with black splotches and it was half wild. It went for our ankles and legs, scratching them if we were too slow, but Liz loved it.

I don't think I'd ever been so upset in my life before. Yet Liz had sustained no lasting damage, despite being thrown into the air and landing on her side in the middle of the road, with traffic all around her. God had performed a saving miracle indeed!

The Silent Observer, Maureen Pride.

A Miracle in the Midst of the Everyday

Taking Liz for a Suzuki piano lesson when she was 4, was not easy, as she didn't like it or want to practise. James was almost 2 and fidgety. Finally the moment came when they and I were released from the agony of the lesson.

Liz was thirsty and I needed to go shopping, but I promised her we would have a drink after I'd been to Twelvetreets bookshop. I had bought books as presents and was laden down with my booty, but it was time to cross the road to get the promised drink. As it was a Friday just before Christmas, Sandy Bay Road was busy. There was a small pedestrian crossing and we managed to get halfway across, but there were buses, trucks and cars all zooming past. I thought I should hold James' hand rather than Liz's because he was more likely to step off the kerb than Liz.

I heard a bang and wondered if a car had hit a pedestrian, but when I looked down, there was no Liz to be seen. She had been hit by a truck and had sailed through the air a good hundred yards from us. I screamed hysterically, thinking that Liz was dead. The traffic stopped around us, and some kind person took charge of James while I was a hopeless case!

But Liz was still alive. Thank you, God! She was taken by ambulance to the Royal Hobart Hospital, but for James, travelling in an ambulance with the siren blaring was a great excitement. When we arrived we were taken immediately to casualty where Liz was checked for broken bones and internal damage. It took 4 hours. Although Liz complained that she was still thirsty, she couldn't have a drink while she was still being x-rayed. Finally, we could go home and Liz was able to quench her thirst after not having had a drink since breakfast.

I felt that the truck driver must have been driving too close to her. But Liz said she had stepped off the kerb. Nothing could have been done. I found out later that the driver was devastated to hit a little girl and had rung up several times to check on her.

When we arrived home, Liz pleaded could she now have the kitten she'd been begging for. She had me over a barrel, because she knew I was so grateful she was unharmed, except for some bruises on her left side. I reluctantly said yes. It was the ugliest kitten I had ever set eyes on — a long haired tabby with black splotches and it was half wild. It went for our ankles and legs, scratching them if we were too slow, but Liz loved it.

I don't think I'd ever been so upset in my life before. Yet Liz had sustained no lasting damage, despite being thrown into the air and landing on her side in the middle of the road, with traffic all around her. God had performed a saving miracle indeed!

The Silent Observer, Maureen Pride

Prayer Spot

I will praise the Lord all my life: ...Do not put your trust in politicians, in humans who cannot save. When their spirit departs they return to the ground and their plans perish. But the Lord reigns forever! (Ps. 146:2,-4,10)

Pray and thank God about:

- ongoing aid for Nepal and other disaster zones.
- Christians persecuted globally – Nigeria, North Korea, Middle East.
- physical and spiritual protection for our Christian children.
- our church members to continue trusting in Jesus and showing Christian love.
- proper and fair resolution of current issues for this parish.
- leaders for Friday Life and UNIFIED lunch time group at Ulladulla High.
- those suffering housing stress; disability or social disadvantage and for Anglicare seeking to give support.
- energy and perseverance for our hospital chaplains in this demanding time.
- just and discerning treatment of immigrants to Australia.

These individuals associated with our church have specifically asked for prayers:

Faith with uni studies and preparing for her wedding to Elijah ; Gisele's brother Tom in NZ, with terminal cancer; Shelley a regular visitor to Milton who wants to move here permanently; ongoing needs of Alan Maling and his family; Stuart Menzie's parents; several people dealing with pain or severe illness, whose names are known to God.

A Lighter Touch

Is God Watching?

The children were lined up for lunch at an Anglican boarding school. At the head of the table was a large tray of apples. The chaplain posted a note on the apple tray: 'Take only ONE. God is watching.'

Moving along the lunch line, at the other end was a large tray of chocolate chip cookies. A girl wrote a note, which she put next to the tray of cookies, 'Take all you want. God is watching the apples.'

The oldest computer was owned by Adam and Eve. It was an Apple with very little memory – just 1 byte and everything crashed!

Prayer Spot

I will praise the Lord all my life: ...Do not put your trust in politicians, in humans who cannot save. When their spirit departs they return to the ground and their plans perish. But the Lord reigns forever! (Ps. 146:2,-4,10)

Pray and thank God about:

- ongoing aid for Nepal and other disaster zones.
- Christians persecuted globally – Nigeria, North Korea, Middle East.
- physical and spiritual protection for our Christian children.
- our church members to continue trusting in Jesus and showing Christian love.
- proper and fair resolution of current issues for this parish.
- leaders for Friday Life and UNIFIED lunch time group at Ulladulla High.
- those suffering housing stress; disability or social disadvantage and for Anglicare seeking to give support.
- energy and perseverance for our hospital chaplains in this demanding time.
- just and discerning treatment of immigrants to Australia.

These individuals associated with our church have specifically asked for prayers:

Faith with uni studies and preparing for her wedding to Elijah ; Gisele's brother Tom in NZ, with terminal cancer; Shelley a regular visitor to Milton who wants to move here permanently; ongoing needs of Alan Maling and his family; Stuart Menzie's parents; several people dealing with pain or severe illness, whose names are known to God.

A Lighter Touch

Is God Watching?

The children were lined up for lunch at an Anglican boarding school. At the head of the table was a large tray of apples. The chaplain posted a note on the apple tray: 'Take only ONE. God is watching.'

Moving along the lunch line, at the other end was a large tray of chocolate chip cookies. A girl wrote a note, which she put next to the tray of cookies, 'Take all you want. God is watching the apples.'

The oldest computer was owned by Adam and Eve. It was an Apple with very little memory – just 1 byte and everything crashed!

